

The York Friends Central Adult School Trust

General Aims

The Trust's primary aim is the promotion of adult education in the York area.

Activities

Each year, the Trust offers financial support to local organisations with charitable objectives
Typically, the trust provides grants in support of:

- the provision of opportunities for self development that were not available in childhood;
- education encompassing not only basic skills but also opening horizons, developing confidence and allowing people to examine their beliefs and ideas;
- developing ideas of community and concern for others, and making it possible to put these ideas into action.

Area of benefit

Activities within a ten mile radius of York

Exclusions

Grants are not made to individuals, only groups.

The Trust does not make grants for activities for which Government funding is available.

Grants are only made for work with people aged over 16.

Grant Amounts

The total annual income of the trust available for grants is typically £2,500-£3,000.

Grants to organizations are general in the low hundreds of pounds.
